

CENTRAL OFFICE DISCUSSIONS AND COLLOQUIA

Central Analysis Section Friday Afternoon Discussion Groups.

SEPTEMBER

"The Analysis Programme for the London-Christchurch Air Race" - W. J. Gibbs and
J. W. Lillywhite.

OCTOBER

No discussions due to the absence of a number of the staff on duty at places like Cocos Island and regions
north of Woomera.

NOVEMBER

"A Review of 'A Revision of the knowledge of the Trade Wind Circulation by Flohn'" - R. H. Clarke.

"Recent Developments in Cloud Physics" - W. J. Gibbs.

"The Tropopause in Australia - A Preliminary Survey of the Data" - K. T. Morley.

DECEMBER

"Aspects of Jet Stream Forecasting" - G. T. Rutherford.

"The Utilization of Central Analyses Statements"
- L. J. Dwyer.

Monthly Colloquia

SEPTEMBER

Radiation Instruments in Australia Dr. F. Albrecht
(University of Melbourne)

OCTOBER

The Ionosphere and the Lower Atmosphere. Mr. E. K. Webb
(C.S.I.R.O. Section of Met. Physics)

NOVEMBER

A Tourist's Impression of Antarctica - Dr. U. Radok
(University of Melbourne)

DECEMBER

A meeting extraordinary of the colloquia was held on 4th to have the opportunity of hearing Dr. E. G. Bowen Chief of the Radiophysics Division of C.S.I.R.O. expound his new thesis of
"The Association Between Meteoritic Dust and Rainfall".