

A photograph taken at night at East Brighton, Victoria about 1952 by leaving the camera (Leica 3 F W A lens) on a tripod with shutter open until a flash occurred. Photograph by F.J. Maher, CSIRO Division of Meteorological Physics, Aspendale, Victoria.