

Wind Roses

Winter
June - August
9 am

The wind roses shown on this page have been prepared using data collected over the period 1961 to 1990. Sites have a minimum of 75% of possible observations in this period except Tennant Creek (> 70%). These roses have been compiled using data measured at a height greater than 3 metres above ground level, generally at a height of 10m.

