Floods in South Australia 1836 – 2005

Edited by D. McCarthy, T. Rogers & K. Casperson

Price $25 (inc. postage & handling)

This book and DVD package contains information about floods in South Australia dating back to the time of European settlement. The book consists largely of references to flood events reported in South Australian newspapers between 1836 and 2005. It has been compiled in chronological order together with a series of brief commentaries on flood topics. The accompanying DVD contains some impressive video footage of flooding along with more than 800 photographs covering the 150 years to 2005.
