

Jorge Bornemann , NIWA, New Zealand

Jorge Bornemann is a Research Software Engineer at NIWA with a background in convective Scale NWP. For the past few years Jorge has been working in enabling portability of the Regional Evaluation Suite and in the design and development of CSET. Before joining NIWA, Jorge worked at the Met Office, leading the R2O activities of the UKV model.